From,

The Deputy Commissioner,
Bangalore District

To

The Secretary to the Government of Mysore, Muzarai Department,
Bangalore.

Sir,

I have the honor to report that in the late alarming drought, which had threatened the standing crops in this District, the managers of the Kāsi = =viswésvara Temple in the city of Bangalore held certain special services and prayers for rain. The concomitant ceremonies and feedings were performed at a cost of Rs. 465, of which Rs. 165/ may be expected to be raised by private subscriptions. The managers have applied to me for a grant from the Muzarai Department of the remainder viz, Rs. 300/. There are no surplus funds to the credit of the temple, but considering the praiseworthy object of the performances, I beg respectfully to suggest that Government may be pleased to award a grant-in-aid from the general Muzarai savings or any other source of the aforesaid amount.

2. The Kanarese memo: presented by the managers is attached. It has been carefully revised by competent persons, and the charges are not susceptible of reduction.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Deputy Commissioner's Office,

Bangalore 28 May 1897.

My dear M. Srinivasachar Iyr,

As you are aware, the public mind was much alarmed by the failure of the early rains in April and May this year. Things were seemingly ominous, and we had to gird up our loins for a possible famine campaign. It was therefore considered advisable to perform the Varjanya japam, in order to propitiate the seemingly reluctant clouds. The function was performed under the auspices of H. Vidyaranya the Iyer, whose interest in such performances is well known. I had also mentioned the matter to the Devan in person before he went to Ooty, and he appeared to be favorable to the ceremony being conducted.

We tried to raise a subscription to meet the cost, and a little less than 60 Rs was all that cd. be scattered. We want Rs 125 to pay the vitricks, Dikshitars, &c. and cannot help appealing to the Mangroi Sabha for succour. In the face of so many calls on the public, I fear that it will be hopeless to meet the deficiency by any other means. Pray that you will be so good as to move Govt. to come to our

Succour and pay us the above amount as early as possible.
The lives of the men employed in the hay rite have not yet been discharged.

Believe me,
Yours sincerely,
W Macsimmons
